

plains station, slipped and fell on cement floor. Internally injured.

George McLaughlin, baker, 5514 S. State st., dead.

No one hurt when Humboldt Park "L" train jumped track at Western av.

Rawle Deland, Cleveland, O., of the Standard Oil Co., died at residence of Paul Deland, 1104 Dearborn av. Heart disease.

Because Boston Y. M. C. A., for which Pres. Taft laid cornerstone yesterday, is being built by non-union men, Boston Bricklayers' Union No. 3 has asked Chicago Bricklayers' Union No. 23 to withdraw Taft's union card of honorary membership they recently gave him.

Dora Corconchi, 1037 Grand av., struck by Grand av. car at Center av. and Huron st. Severely injured.

Hazel Butler, 6, 3662 Grand av., struck by Grand av. car at Monticello av. Fatally injured.

James H. Wilkerson, U. S. atty., filed suit against I. C. Ry. Co. for violation of 16-hour law.

John Donnel beat his cousin, Mrs. Julia Sklenes, 611 W. 16th st. Arrested. $200 and costs.

Harold Baldwin, 24, chauffeur, 4824 W. Huron st., arrested in connection with disappearance of Katherine Snyder, 17, 4919 W. Huron st., three weeks ago.

Paul Vanderburg, 6 E. 111th st., and Wm. Mooth, 11739 S. La Salle st., arrested. Struck conductor A. DeMuth, 600 E. 90th st., because transfer did not have union label on it. Paul fined $10, Mooth $5.

Mrs. Mary L. Martin, 1001 Sunnyside av., appealed to police to find her cat, valued at $700.

City council commission urging jail sentences for persons permitting dogs to go unmuzzled.

Joseph Cadi, 1630 Allport st., threatened by crowd after his motorcycle ran down Wm. Suvicki, 1644 W. 18th st. Suvicki severely injured.

Louis Soelle, saloonkeeper, 655 W. North av., died on board liner Hanover, returning from Europe. Apoplexy.

"Hereafter all speed violators will have to pay their fine or go to bridewell."—Municipal Judge Maxwell.

Wm. Taylor, Cleveland, O., robbed of $62 and tools valued at $30, from his room at Normandie hotel, 419 S. Wabash ave.

Fred Rupp, 3, 4313 N. 48th ave., seriously injured by C. & M. & St. P. Ry. switch engine at 48th ave.

Heywood Fairfax, 9, 111 W. Chicago ave., fell from fire escape at 17 E. Chestnut. Fatally injured.

Wm. Ellfeldt, 7243 Champlain ave., victim of "electric light inspector." Jewelry valued at $200 taken.

Anthony McDonald, 18, arrested, charged with larceny.

Mrs. Agnes Morris, 2117 Washington blvd., has sworn out warrants for arrests of Mrs. M. Briggs, 2153 Park ave., Mrs. Lena Warsman and Miss May Warsman, 2448 Fillmore ave., charging that they attacked her at W. Madison st. and Hoyne ave.